Workshop: Efficiency and Productivity in Banking Industry

Workshop organised by the European Research Group (Groupement de Recherche Européen (GDR)) “Money, Banking & Finance” (Monnaie Banque Finance) and its working group Financial and Monetary European Integration (Intégration Monétaire et Financière Européenne) jointly with LEM-IÉSEG School of Management and EQUIPPE.

Date: April 23, 2008

Venue: IÉSEG School of Management, Lille

This workshop aims bringing together both professionals and academics interested in the fields of efficiency and productivity in banking and finance. There is a widespread need to continuously assess the efficiency of banks and their restructuring to avoid financial crises and bankruptcies. Global threats to banking and financial systems can no longer be ignored.

Organizing and Scientific Committee:

Rym Ayadi (CEPS)
Jean-Philippe Boussemart (IÉSEG-LEM, Lille3)
Benoît Dervaux (LEM, CNRS)
Etienne Farvaque (EQUIPPE, Lille1)
Pascal Grandin (ESC, Lille2)

How to get to Lille: please see next page

How to get to Lille and IÉSEG School of Management:

By train:

The nearest main train station in Lille is either "Lille-Flandres" or "Lille Europe".
Take a taxi at the exit or take a bus (see below). It is about 20 minutes walking to the workshop site.

By bus:

From both train stations, take line C2 (La Citadine).
Get out at the stop "Université Catholique" (which is on "Boulevard Vauban").

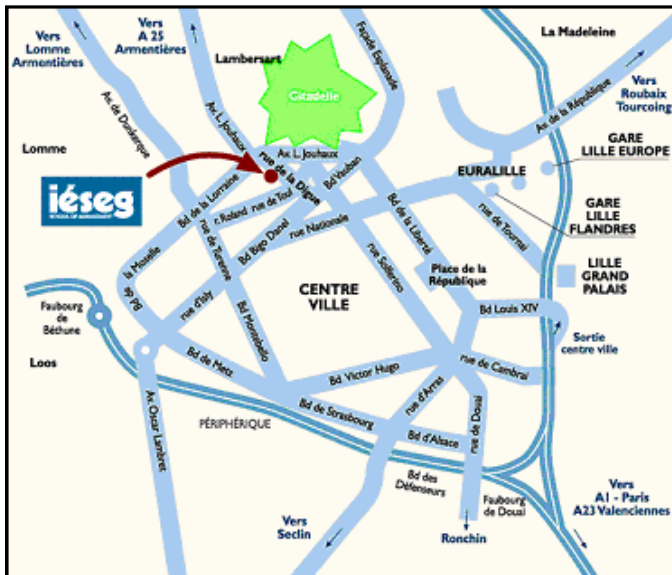

By metro:

From the train station Lille-Flandres, take line 2 in the direction "Saint-Philibert". Get out at the stop "Cormontaigne". Walk towards the "Boulevard Danel", then continue on the Boulevard Vauban. At the crossroad with "Rue Solférino", turn left into the "rue de la Digue".

By car:

If you come from Paris (Motorway A1), from Gand (A22) or from Bruxelles (A27) take the ring motorway, direction Dunkerque, take exit 4. If you come from Dunkerque (A25), take the exit number 5.
